GENERAL SESSIONS

For Child Care Providers & Family Child Care Homes

Create Exciting Classrooms with Super Science

Jennifer Heinze Kor, MBA, Diploma Early Childhood Education and Care, AMI, Montessori

Science is a natural, critical part of a child's early learning. In the classroom setting, science can be presented in a way for the child to explore their natural curiosity and need to make sense of the world. During this workshop, we will explore topics, ideas and activities that you can immediately implement in your classroom. Topics include zoology, biology/health science, botany, astronomy and fun chemistry experiments. (2 Hours)

Let's Talk About 'How' to Talk About It

Joanna H. Treadwell, MA Marriage & Family Therapy

You likely entered the childcare field because of your love for children, your belief in the advantages of positive early childhood experiences, or perhaps the paycheck (insert chuckles). You do get to invest in the lives of children, but you are also required to have tough conversations with parents/guardians. How can you best tell "that" parent that her sweet, perfect toddler has bitten AGAIN? How about when "that" parent's princess IS the biter? How can you best tell that already nervous parent that you believe her child may have a developmental delay? Let talk about how to talk about it! (2 Hours)

Problem Solving for Our Youngest Learners

Deanna Hibbard, Lakeshore Learning

Being able to effectively problem solve is the foundation of developing good character and is the cornerstone for becoming resilient. When children have confidence that they can solve problems, they feel more in control and therefore better able to handle adversity and/or bounce back. In this session we will focus on the beginning stages of problem solving for our youngest learners. (2 Hours)

Are you informed and "team ready" should any of your families find themselves experiencing homelessness, poverty, and/or unemployment? As with all families that you serve, you want to be an asset to each of them, and to support them as part of their child's team in striving for positive early learning experiences. During this workshop, you will learn how to be a "shelter" during a stormy time in the lives of children and family members. (2 Hours)

This session is based on a workshop by Tom Copeland and facilitated by 'Train the Trainer Certified' Kay Gillock, Family Child Care Partnership, Auburn University, local area Mentor. (2 Hours)
